

Dear Retailer

Whilst surfing the internet I recently came across a website which I feel you should know about. I would very much like to use this website to order Newspapers and/or Magazines from you via the internet as I would find it very convenient. I hope you may find it to be as convenient.

Website address: <http://www.mynewsagent.co.uk>
Google search: newsagents or MyNewsagent

I would be very grateful if you would take the time to have a look at the website and if you find it to be a suitable proposition could you please register with them so that I can register with you for online ordering.

From the information available the company operating the website (My Newsagent Limited) have set up a registration facility for retailers at the following website address: www.newsagent.me.uk

I would appreciate it if you could let me know if/when you do or do not register so I can commence my orders with you, preferably online.

My name is: _____

(please provide the retailer with one or more of the following contact details)

My contact(s): _____ (mobile)

(landline) _____

_____ (email)

Yours Sincerely

*This is a template letter provided to your (potential) customer by My Newsagent Limited via the website www.mynewsagent.co.uk. We have provided this letter to ease their request to you and clearly indicate the information you would require to register with us for online newspaper and magazine ordering.
